BG Controls appoints Operations Manager

Award-winning building controls expert BG Controls has appointed Ian Ross as the new Operations Manager for the South East. Ian - aged 41 and from Islington in London has over 15 years of sector experience and joins the leading independent building controls company from NG Bailey. Prior to this he was at Honeywell Building Solutions - he has held similar managerial roles at both companies.

In his new role, Ian will oversee and ensure efficient delivery of all projects in the BG's growing South East division.

"I'm looking forward to my new role at BG," comments Ian Ross. "I joined the company because of the quality and strength of the team at BG and its reputation as a leading building controls expert."

"This is a great opportunity as the South East is a fairly new region for BG and it will be good to develop the market with a growing company," adds Ian. "It's great to have a candidate of Ian's calibre joining the team at BG," says Duncan Biggins, BG's managing director. "I'd like to welcome him to the team and look forward to working with him."

In his spare time, when he is not running around after his two daughters, Ian enjoys holidays, travel and a spot of golf.
